PREACHING THE GOSPEL

Sundays @ 7:30 am WUXP-TV30

James Watkins, speaker

(Not My Job, cont.) So many times church members do nothing more than point out congregational faults.

Imagine a full-grown man, almost six-foot tall, leaning over an anthill and observing the tiny creature's team work and initiative.

This plucky insect, without "chief, officer or ruler" carries out its responsibilities without being told, coerced, petted or bribed. Are provisions needed at harvest? The ant gets to work on the task of harvesting. Will there be a drought in winter? The ant sets about rectifying the need.

The ant doesn't point out the luxurious lifestyle of the queen ant or the mistakes of manager ants. He simply sees the need and gets the job done. To the ant, the words "Something must be done" are turned around to, "I must do something."

So go consider the ant, and be wise.

It's Not My Job!

by Stan Mitchell

Here is an everyday scenario. A parent says to his child, "Please clean up the mess in the living room."

The child says to the parent, "But I didn't make the mess!"

The parent says to the child, "Did I ask you who made the mess, or to clean up the mess?"

"Go to the ant, O sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise. Without having any chief, officer, or ruler, she prepares her bread in summer and gathers her food in harvest," (Proverbs 6:6-8, ESV).

In thirty three years of church work, the most common phrase I have heard is this: "Something must be done!" (Continued back page)

Events

Fellowship meal: Today we are scheduled to have our monthly fellowship and celebrate January birthdays: Wanda Miller (16th), Tim Waldron (26th) and perhaps others.

Missionary visit and report: Jim Waldron will report on his work in India mission work and also preach Sunday morning, January 24. We send monthly support for his work.

Good News: Main Street congregation in Manchester had 86 baptisms in 2009. That's what happens when people teach others face-to-face. (The word "gospel means "good news".)

Rom. 1:16 - For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

Rom. 10:13 - For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? 15And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! 16But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? 17So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. 18But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.
