Miscellaneous Characteristics of Gospel of Luke

Written to Greeks

Writer is a Gentile, a physician who also wrote the book of Acts.

Jesus the Man: Emphasis on Jesus as a man to men, women, the poor, widows, and the Gentiles.

More like a beautiful story about Jesus headed for Jerusalem

Luke mentions praying more than the others. Mark mentions it two times, Matthew mentions the prayer in Gethsemene and another.

Luke mentions the Holy Spirit more than Matthew and Mark combined.

Luke is interested in the Gentiles
Poor are mentioned in at least 13 contexts.

Women are mentioned 10+ times
Humanity is seen in birth, concern for poor, lament for Jerusalem, prayer life, trouble at thought of dying, fasting, yielding his spirit.

Satan vs. Christ

by Ken Thomas

The hostility of the evil opponent of the Lord is pictured in the names he wears in scripture. "Satan" has the basic meaning of "adversary", and "devil" is the common translation of "diabolos" which means "slanderer" or "accuser". In Revelation 12, Satan is called "the great dragon", "that old serpent", "the deceiver of the whole world", and the "accuser of our brethren."

In contrast, Jesus declared that his disciples would be known for their love for each other ( John 13:35), and Hebrews 13:1 implores, "Let brotherly love continue." Paul warned, "If ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one another," ( Galatians 5:15).

It is sad to see brethren (who sincerely believe they are defending the truth) spending so much effort finding fault and attacking brethren that they end up on Satan's side, guilty of hatred, variance (dissension), and strife. Galatians 5:20-23 teaches that such will prevent an inheritance in the kingdom of God. But there is no law against love, longsuffering, and gentleness!
