Topic: November 27 - God's Love

Paul prayed that we, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge. We can never learn too much about God's love.

Thanksgiving

This is Thanksgiving week, a time for celebration, reunion, and gratitude. Thanksgiving is not seasonal business, but we do well to be reminded annually of its importance. Here's why:

Thanksgiving is admission that though life is often hard and unfair there is occasion for genuine joy and happiness.

Thanksgiving is recognition that the gifts we hold in our hands and heart are not solely the results of our own efforts. We are indebted to others and ultimately to God for vast contributions to our well' being.

Thanksgiving is a reminder that no life is a solo flight. We gather with and/or think of all those who have made our journey worthwhile.

Thanksgiving is confession of those times of ingratitude which have distanced us from the mighty God. It provides opportunity for worship and reconciliation.

Let's Put The "Thanks" Back In Thanksgiving

The inspired writers of the New Testament have consistently pointed us toward the expression of thanks. Paul goes so far as to tell the saints at Thessalonica to "give thanks in all circumstances" (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

We indeed have much to be thankful for.

As this Thanksgiving season approaches, the following are some Scriptures associated with what true Thanksgiving is all about:

Truth — "We shall know the truth and the truth will set us free" (John 8:32). "Sanctify them in truth, thy word is truth" (John 17:17).

Heaven — "Let not your hearts be troubled . . . in my Father's house are many rooms . . . and I go to prepare a place for you" (John 14:1-2).

Abundance — "I have come that they might have life, and . . . have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

Newness of life — "We are buried with Him by baptism into death . . . in order that . . . we too may live a new life" (Romans 6:4).

Kingdom of God — "Upon this Rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prefail against it" (Matthew 16:18).

Salvation — "He became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him" (Hebrews 5:9).

Giving — "The goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance" (Romans 2:4).

Identification — "You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God" (1 Peter 2:9).

Victory over death — "Death has been swallowed up in victory" (1 Corinthians 15:54).

Inheritance — "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ" (Romans 8:17).

No condemnation — "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus" (Romans 8:1).

Gift of the Son — "For God so loved the world that on the cross He gave His one and only Son" (John 3:16).
